AS AMENDED OCT 2006
AS AMENDED JAN 2020

Section 1.   It shall also be the duties of the Secretary to keep the Constitution and By-Laws of the Cascade Radio Club Incorporated, and to have same with (him/her) at every regular or special meeting. (He/She) shall note all amendments, changes or additions thereon and shall permit them to be consulted by any member on request.

Section 2.   Applications for membership shall be submitted to the Secretary in writing, and each applicant must attend at least one meeting and must express a willingness thereon to abide by the Constitution and By-Laws and such rules as may from time to time be made by the Board of Trustees. Applications for membership shall be accompanied by one year's dues, as an initiation fee, unless the period from the date of the application to the next date when the dues are regularly payable is less than six months, in which case, one half year's dues will be required. This fee shall be returned to an applicant not accepted by the club. A majority vote of the membership present at any meeting shall be required for acceptance into the Cascade Radio Club.

Section 3.   Regular meetings of the club shall be held on the third Wednesday of each month. Meetings of the Board of Trustees shall be held by order of the President whenever required for conducting club business, or may be called by the President upon the written request of any five members of the club. All members shall receive notification of such meeting twenty four hours prior to the time of the meeting.

Section 4.   A regular annual assessment of Twenty Dollars per member, and a family membership of Forty dollars, payable on the first of January each year is assessed in accordance with article VI of the Constitution for the purpose of providing funds for current expenses. Dues shall be paid to the Treasurer who shall issue a membership card, showing expiration date and signed by the President and Treasurer.
